SITE

This wine is made from a selection of our favorite Russian River Valley vineyards. All sites are situated 10-15 miles from the coast, on gravelly loam and sandstone soils planted to Clone 4, Dijon 95 + 96, and Curtis clone. This growing region is distinguished by its complex relationship with the cold Pacific Ocean, omnipresent fog, ancient redwoods, and the Russian River itself.

VINIFICATION

11.6T hand-harvested between Aug 26th and Sept 27th. Berries were destemmed and gently crushed before going to press. Fermented on wild yeasts and aged separately for 10 months in 600L neutral oak puncheons, before racked off the lees to steel for an additional 6 months. A slow malolactic fermentation completed. Cross-flow filtered prior to bottling.
