VINIFICATION
1.74 T of Pinot Noir (82%) + .37 T of Chardonnay (18%) hand harvested on Sept 25. Fruit was gently crushed and sent direct-to-press. Co-fermented on wild yeasts in neutral oak for 5-mos. A slow, spontaneous malo completed. This Reserve wine was racked to one cigar-shaped barrel for an additional 10-mos. Bottled unfined/unfiltered.

SITE

At less than a 1/4 sq mile, the Cole Ranch AVA is the smallest appellation in the U.S. It is located between the Russian River and Anderson Valley at 1400-1600 feet. Surround by forested hills, it is unique for its terrarium-like setting and cool climate / late ripening relative to neighboring Ukiah. This 55-acre vineyard was planted in 1971 by John Cole, but is now under the management of Mike Lucia and Jill Shadek who are practicing organic without any herbicides or pesticides.
